- Choice of Rubrics for Transition manual.

- for Higher-Functioning Students
- for Students with Moderate Disabilities
- for Students on the Autism Spectrum
- for Students with Severe Disabilities

Each participant receives his/her choice of Rubrics for Transition manuals, but gets access to all four Rubrics for Transition manuals. This give all participants access to transition needs surveys, rubrics, and a multiple year progress report forms for all four levels.

- Rubrics for transition (all four levels) in editable form on CD.

Participants get all of the rubrics in the four transition rubrics manuals in editable form in RubricMaker software. With the transition rubrics in the RubricMaker, participants can edit rubric wording and change rubric scales to make the rubrics more effective for data collection.

- Online access to Activities for Transition for one year.

- for higher-functioning students
- for students with moderate disabilities

Participants get online access to activities for transition for each of the skills in the higher-functioning and moderate disabilities manuals for one year. For each skill there is a complete unit of instruction, including: lessons, interviews or observations, practice activities, authentic situations, evaluations, plans for improvement, and certificates that students can earn.

- Online access to all four levels of Targeting Transition surveys for one year

Participants get online access to electronic Targeting Transition surveys for all four levels of transition skills for one year. The electronic surveys allow team members to complete surveys over the Internet. Case managers can then sort the results by need and priority, produce graphs, and print out results.

Note: After first year, subscription fees for the online products are: $300 per year for a five-user pack for the online activities and $300 per year for a five-user pack for the online surveys. The fee for each additional user beyond five is $75.
